

Induction Ceremony

Inductor: "When you make the commitment to join Venturing, you are not just joining your crew. You are joining the worldwide Scouting movement."

"Is it your desire to join the worldwide Scouting movement?"

(Inductee responds)

(Inductor and Inductee clasp hands in the Scout handshake.)

"The ideals in the Scout Oath and Scout Law are the guidelines all Scouts use to guide their thoughts and actions. They are honored by the Scouts around the world."

"Please repeat the Scout Oath and Scout Law with me."

(Inductor and Inductee make the Scout sign)

(Inductee repeats the Scout Oath & Law)

"Please state the Venturing Motto:"

(inductee says "Leading the Adventure")

"Venturers do many things defined by the interests of the crew members and the crew's adventures. In Venturing you will have fun leading, planning, serving, growing, teaching, mentoring, being outdoors, learning, building relationships, and preparing for life, all guided by the values of Scouting."

(To the members present) "Welcome as the newest member of the crew, {inductee's name}. Please greet your fellow members."

{Inductee goes around to each member who shakes hands and is cheerfully greeted by the members.}
